yesterday before dawn and saw a white apparition, to-day. They spent the time, before the departure shonting vociferously, coming across the garden of the noon trains, in the corridors of Bagg's Ho tel, philosophizing on the result. Their comments were of the most varied character, partaking largely of expressions of regret on all sides that the outcome had not been different. The Blaine men do not think that a full exhibition of their strength in the convention was made. That is no doubt true. A considerable majority of the delegates were friendly to Mr. Blame. Looking back over the contest now, it is not difficult to see how easily the convention might have been carried for him, if the same efforts had been made in his behalf as were made to defeat him. In fact to give his friends a good working majority in the convention only required that the votes should be held of desegates who had stated their intention to vote for Blaine, and who were elected to represent Blame constituencies. That enough of those votes were taken a vay to give the combination control, was due in part to the lack of organization, and in part probably to the "forbidden and abhor-rent forces" which some of the Administration leaders knewso well how to use.

When the vote on temporary chairman was announced the Arthur leaders were surprised. They anticipated a much larger majority for the Edmunds candidate. They set about to secure enough votes to make sure of a majority for the Educated delegates-at-large, knowing that they could not hold all the votes they had on the question of temporary organization. How they succeeded in securing votes which had been pledged to the Blaine leaders, can only be known to themselves. But they did so, and secured enough Blains votes to retain control of the convention by a slen-

The Blaine delegates lacked the discipline and organization which was used so effectively on the other side. It was the difference between machina and anti-machine, between men who came here to represent the freely expressed will of Republican voters, and men who represented political leaders. On the Administration side three or four leaders were able to speak for the entire Arthur delegation of 185 men. At 2 o'clock in the morning when these 185 delegates were, with few exceptions, asleep, scattered over the city, thosa turee or four leaders, at the head of whom stood Mr. Warren and Mr. O'Brien, were able to go to the handful of Edmunds men and negotiate an unconditional serrender of the entire Arthur delegation, Not a murmur was heard from the Arthur delegates, They swallowed what Mr. Warren said "was CINCINNATI, April 24,-The American Oak a bitter pill," struck their colors and surrendered unconditionally to an unorganized force not on third as great as their own. A PLATFORM OUTSPOKEN ON THE TARIFF-PRESI-DENTIAL PREFERENCES.

INT TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE. CLEVELAND, April 24 .- After such late hours and active work as wearied the delegates the night previous, it was difficult for all of them to be prompt in attendance upon the second day of the State Convention. The convention was called for 9, but it was nearly 10 before the delegates had begun to take their seats. The building rapidly filled up. and early in the day the crowd had completely taken up every available foot of room. The Tabernacle will accommodate nearly four thousand people, and still another thousand would have been glad to come in. There was less enthusiasm on the surface than marked the proceedings of the previous day, but there was apparent a decided interest among the delegates and spectators in every detail of the convention's doings. The seats on the stage were filled with prominent citizens of the State. There were many ladies in the assemblage. The floral decoratious had been renewed and presented an attractive and refreshing picture. As the routine proceedings concluded and the more interesting features of the day came on, the enthusiasm increased, and as speech after speech was delivered praising the Mation, the hall resounded with approving cheers. As the Committee on Permanent Organization announced the mane of Major McKinley for permanent chairman, enthusiastic applause resounded. The names of Sherman, Blame, Garfield, Logan and Arthur were greeted with cheers, When one spoke of Sherman, the cheers that suddenly broke forth continued unceasingly for several minutes and as if by renewed impulse, would again break forth with increased vigor. The convention was in the platform adopted reaffirms the principles entire in Republican platforms of the last quarter of a century. It expresses the faith of the Michigan Republicans in the ability of the party to secure in the future, as in the past, such modifications and reforms as time and experience shall prove necessary. It also expresses confidence that the wisdom and patriotism of the Chicago Convention will formulate a platform and nominate candidates that the people will approve and that will next November call out from the State of Michigan the old-time Republican majority. forth with increased vigor. ELECTION OF DELEGATES-AT-LARGE. There was the wildest excitement at the election of delegates at large and at times great confusion prevailed. Amor Smith, in a brief speech, prescuted the name of Judge J. B. Foraker. of Cincinnati, The other names presented were those of M. A. Hanna, Judge William H. West, General John Beatty, Waiter S. Thomas, colored, of Delaware, and the convention was about to proceed with the choice of delegates, when J ha W. THE PLATFORM. There was much discussion over the resolutions. The first report of the committee was recommitted and the final report contained a resolution in support of the Scott law which was stricken out as objection was made to lighting a National campaign on State issue . The report with this exception was adopted by a unanimous vote and was as

The Republican party of Ohic approves the policy of protection in all economic legislation, favors its application without discrimination to American industries, thereby securing employment one to defray the proper and economical ex-of the Government from duties upon foreign import and proper internal taxation, and that it condemns the Democratic decirne of tariff for revenue culy as destinctive to the business interest of the country: that the decirne of the Democratic of the commire; that the doctrine of the Democratic party favoring the putting of what is improperly called raw material, such as ore, pig iron, wool, etc., on the free list is dangerous, and if carried out, will be destructive of the best interests of the Nation; that the reduction of duties on imported wools made by the act of 1883 has seriously injured the prosperity of an important agricultural pursuit, in which more than a milion of our citizens are engaged, and unless this legislation be amended the business of wool-growing will be paralyzed; if it be not transferred to foreign nations. Therefore, we demand the restoration of the wool tariff of 1867, which gave the first and only substantial protection ever offered to husbandry in the United States.

The Republican party having aided labor—liberating it when oppressed; giving to it homesteads in the public domain, and supporting schools at public expense for the children of all classes—recognizes now more fully than ever the great interest of American labor, its claim upon the care of the Government and its right to an equal consideration with capital.

The Republican party stands by its legislation.

With capital,

The Republican party stands by its legislation known as the Scott law, and condemns the want of succerty of the Democratic party in respect thereto.

The position of the Republican party touching the Civil Service, as repeatedly expressed through its conventions and exemplified by its legislation faithfully administered, is heartily endorsed. fatthfully adountstered, is heartily endorsed.

The Kepublican party is in favor of maintaining the equal civil rights of all classes of citizens under guarantee of the law and of the Constitution in all parts of the United Stares, and it also demands that the elective franchise shall be respected to the end that every voter shall have a free ballot, which shall be honestly counted.

We heartily approve the administration of President Arthur, both in his foreign and domestic policies.

After the convention had agreed upon the platform the work of the day was concluded with the choice of the Rev. James Poindexter, Walter S. Thomas, John P. Green and Robert Harlan, all colored, as alternates, and of General Featty and General James M. Comley as Presidential electors.

PRESIDENTIAL CHOICE OF THE DELEGATES.

The result of the convention was in no sense victory for either of the Presidential aspirants, whose names were most prominently mentioned. Each secured nominally an equal share of the delegates-at-large to Chicago, though events may prove that the scales were tipped slightly in Sherman's favor. Only two of the delegates openly declare their preferences. Judge Forsker, the defeated candidate for Governor, is for Sherman, under any cir-cumstances. Judge West of Bellefontaine, also a defeated gubernaterial aspirant, is as strong-ly for Biaine, but announced in his speech to-day, that if the logic of events seemed to demand Sherman's nomination, he would not be found to be the dog in the manger. McKin-ley was required a under the insuression that he ley was nominated under the impression that he was a Blaine man, but it seems that his preference for that candidate is anything but strong. Mark A. Hanna, the Cieveland delegate, is presumably for Sherman, although his only expressed views are of wanting Republicans who believe that they were chosen merely as a subterfuge to avert the dissatis-faction of the colored voters, which might other-wise have been caused by the defeat of Poindexter as a candidate for delegate-at-large. STRONG MEN FOR DELEGATES-AT-LARGE.
